Gentlemen. You Can Get Fur Lined Overcoats Wednesday at $25.00 Each Coats That You Can't Duplicate Under $50

This is the biggest and best overcoat bargain in the history of Edmonton clothing business-it is such a remarkable offer that dealers will no doubt attempt to buy them, for this price is much less than wholesale cost. That is why we must refuse to sell more than one coat to a customer. They are handsome, big ulsters, splendid in appearance and warm and cosy. The shell is of fine quality black English beaver cloth; the lining of soft, warm marmot fur; and the collar of selected muskrat. They are double breasted coats with braid loops and barrel button fasteners. Sizes 36 to 46. Our regular price is $39,50. We firmly believe that you would be asked $50,00 for this coat anywhere else. While 46 coats last, each

SOME "MUD-SLINGING" FOR THE SOUTH SIDE

Here is Some Talk About Mud that Will be of Especial Interest to South of the River Readers

Statements of the mayor to the contrary, there is, and will be no more filter plant capacity than is required to supply filtered water to north of the river water mains this next spring and summer. It there is great river turbidity, dirty water will find its way, also, into the north side mains.

In accordance with the recommendations of Engineering Experts Ress, Lee and Francis—and all other imported regimeers besides our own—provisions were made this year for additional filters and a contract awarded. The mayor retused to sign the contract, And another season of muddrinking was thereby destined for south of the river.

Grinking was increay destined for south of the ryper.

The outstanding feature of this lamentable state of affairs is that, while the major had the power, and tild exercise this power, to prevent the prosecution of this work, the present power, to prevent the prosecution of this work, the present ports to city government is such that individual responsibility commot be placed directly upon him. Power without responsibility is dangerous. The council shares the blane, and the commission board as a whole must share the blane.

commission board as a whole must share the blaine.

With Elective Commission Government, embodying the Initiative, the Referendum and the Recall, such a condition would be impossible. The public would be able to put its finger right on the man responsible and say, "It it up to you, sir. Air you going to provide pure water for us at the earliest possible moment or air you not!" And under Elective Commission Government the man arrivedly responsible would not waste a whole season diffy-dallying, and end up by merely digging a bole in the ground.

Your VOTE AND INFLUENCE Respectfully Solicited

Mayoralty Election

AYOR SHORT opened the campaign Friday night at Bijou wit han account of his stewardship. He also opened the eyes of the ratepayers with respect to his actions as well as his hopes and aims.

Just keep a few of the facts in your head during the campaign—the following for example:

1. The business of the city opened with a financial handicap of about five million deficit from last year.

2. The present year has been the hardest year to finance that has ored in the history-of the city.

3. Mayor Short will see the business of the year closed with a clean sheet and a chance to open business and work next year with a credit of five million.

4. In spite of the financial difficulties the construction of necessary and practical services and utilities has gone on uninterrupted.

and practical services and utilities has gone on uninterrupted.

5. The word of paying both interior and radial has doubled and the agency of the paying both interior labe, water mains and sewers, after radius of telephone trank lines.

6. In addition to meeting the problem of general financing and of carrying on the constructive work demanded by the development of the city, Mayor Short has taken steps to fundamentally reorganize the control of city expenditures.

expenditures.

7. He has reorganized the money audit department of the city. He has provided for right audit or checks of city stores and materials.

8. The BIGGEST "HING of the year is MAYOR SHORT"S DEMAND FOR AN AUDIT OF WORK by which it is intended that the ratepayers will GET VALUE FOR THEIR MONEY. KEEP YOU'R MIXD ON THE THERE AUDITS, and don't forget that the business of the city demands a MAYOR WITH COURAGE AND THEM.

We Believe in Truth, Not Only in the Printed Word, But in Every Phase of Business

We believe that the winter suits, overcoats and ulsters and men's furnishings we are offering to the public are the best ever as-sembled in Ethanton. They're honest goods-materials, styles, workmanship, price right-ness—whose honest story is a strong one. Every article is backed by our personal guarantee-no transaction is completed until the purchaser is satisfied.

We personally selected every article in the iarge stocks we are showing for the holiday season. We don't know of any store in west-ern Canada handling better clothes. This is based upon a full appreciation of facts—goods, service and prices—as they are. Our prices are reasonable—consistent with honest merchan-dising. We offer genuine dollar-for-dollar values.

Those who appreciate what quality and service mean and those who desire to become better acquainted with these things are cordistly invited to Visit our store and examine our various lines. It is a real pleasure to show these clothes and men's furnishings and it involves no obligation whatever on your part to expend a penny.

The Right Character is as Great a Factor in Business as it is in Man Someone has apply said: "It is cheaper in the end to pay fair prices for service and goods when you know that character is behind them." There is character behind "The Bay" merchandise. We are agents for the world's best makers. We carry merchandise of the highest standard of quality, lines which have built for themselves enviable reputations and which we are always ready to stand back of. It is nothing to buy lines with absolutely no "character" behind them, you would be doing far better by buying "Character Goods" at fair prices. We offer you "Character Goods" at specially reduced prices.
